INTRODUCTION

Gaurang had always been interested in the past, mainly by the stories of abandoned places and the people who once lived there. He had a craze for finding the hidden histories and the mysteries .He used to share these stories on his youtube channel

One day, while scrolling through his instagram reel , Gaurang came across a reel about an abandoned house in Lucknow that was up for sale.

He did some research and found out that the house had been empty for years, and that no one was interested to buy that house , he was confused that why people are not showing interest buying an house with such a low price.

He wanted to explore the abandoned house and record videos for his channel, Gaurang decided to buy the house. He was excited as he was buying his first house and he was sure that his viewers would be fascinated by the mysteries of the old house.

However, when Gaurang arrived in Lucknow and started asking around about the abandoned house, he was met with hesitation and fear from the locals. They warned him of the paranormal activity that had been reported in the house, and told him to stay away.

But Gaurang dismissed their warnings and went ahead with his plan to explore the abandoned house. As he was unaware that he was about to experience something far more terrifying than he had ever imagined.

The purchase

Gaurang contacted the real estate agent and made an appointment to see the abandoned house in Lucknow. When he arrived, the house looked even more impressive than he had imagined. It was a two-story house with a large garden, surrounded by a high brick wall. . He couldn't wait to explore its hidden corners and secret rooms.

The real estate agent showed Gaurang around the house, pointing out its features and telling him stories about its past. Gaurang was thrilled with the house's potential and asked the agent how much it would cost to buy. The agent told him that the owner was willing to sell the house for a very low price, just to get rid of it. Gaurang couldn't believe his luck and immediately agreed to buy the house.

After signing the paperwork and receiving the keys to the house, Gaurang went straight to the abandoned house. He was excited to start exploring his findings for his YouTube channel. As he unlocked the front door and stepped inside, he felt a thrill of excitement.

The house was silent, and there was an strange feeling in the air.

Gaurang started filming his first vlog, showing his viewers the inside of the house and talking about its history. He started exploring the house ,and got tired after filming the ground floor of the house ,and he went to sleep when he woke up in the next morning he saw an old man standing at the gate of his house .gaurang goes outside asking the man what he needs.

the old man suddenly moves backward saying he's watching you, RUN!

gaurang thought that the man was mad and ignores the old man and goes inside the house and start recording the vlog for his channel As he walked from room to room, he started to notice strange things. Doors that he had closed would open on their own.

even though there was no one there. Gaurang thought it was his imagination and continued filming. That night, as Gaurang settled down to sleep in one of the bedrooms, he heard strange noises coming from outside. It sounded like someone was walking around the house, but when he looked out the window, there was no one there. Gaurang tried to ignore it and went back to sleep, but he kept having strange dreams about the abandoned house and the people who had lived there.

Despite these strange happenings , Gaurang was determined to prove to his viewers that there was no such thing as ghosts or paranormal activity. He continued to film his vlogs, showing the abandoned house .

Exploring the house

The next day, Gaurang woke up early, eager to explore more of the abandoned house. He grabbed his camera and started filming as he walked through the empty halls, trying to capture every detail of the house. As he walked through the various rooms, felt as he was being watched. there was total silence and was broken only by the sound of his own footsteps.

As he approached the stair, he felt a cold at the moment. He shivered, but he was determined to keep going. He climbed the stairs, his heart was beating faster in his chest. The second floor looked more older than the first, with spiderwebs hanging on the ceiling and dust covering every surface. Gaurang continued to film as he made his way through the bedrooms and bathrooms, but he started to feel as something was wrong .

But there was a sense of danger in the air. As he was about to enter one of the rooms, the door suddenly shut , he thought it was the wind

He continued in the room with his camera and saw a scrapbook which was placed on the table and the book looked very old and was covered with dust and webs when he opened the book he saw the photos of the family which used to live there he started turning the pages with curiosity and came across page no. 41

which was fully covered with blood and it contained photos of the people who were dead .His hands started shivering while turning the page and the next page made him froze to his bones his heartbeat got high upto it's peak because the page contained the photo of his own head separated from his body.

He got horrified and threw the book and ran back to the first floor, with fear in his eyes ,his hands were shaking there was a sudden change in the environment ,as he was returning from the stairs he saw a shadow of a man with a knife from his back he was shivered to his bones after watching the shadow on the ground and then suddenly turned back "there was no one" but the shadow was still there! he ran towards his room with his full potential nd locked the room from inside. This was a terrible experience and he instantly called his friend harsh who lives in Lucknow and shared whatever happened that night. Harsh didn't believe and thought Gaurang was doing a prank ,Harsh decided to come there .Gaurang cuts the call and opens his camera to find what he has recorded but the only thing which was recorded in the camera was the dark screen and some weird sound , he puts back his camera and went to sleep

Nightmares and research

That night, Gaurang had trouble sleeping. He kept dreaming about the abandoned house and the ghost. In his dreams, the ghost was chasing him through the halls, and he couldn't run.

He woke up in a cold sweat, his heart beating so fast.

He tried to stop thinking about the dream, but he couldn't stop thinking about the abandoned house. He decided to do some research on what exactly happened, what is the history of this house hoping to find some answers

Harsh did a call to Gaurang asking a photo of the house so that he can reach out to the correct location so Gaurang went outside the house and took some photos of the house and sent those photos to Harsh. After a minute Harsh texted "WHO'S THE MAN WITH AN AXE?" Gaurang thought Harsh was scaring him, but after a couple of minutes he sent a cropped photo attached to the text

After seeing the photo Gaurang froze to his bones he was so scared and he kept standing outside of the house until Harsh came. Then they both gone inside the house, Harsh was a atheist he neither believed in god nor a ghost he was still thinking that Gaurang was doing some kind of prank for his YouTube channel, and he was unaware of the things that are going to happen there, then they both went to library and started researching about this house they dig deeper into the history of the house. Spent hours reading old newspapers and police reports, trying to uncover any information that could help him.

At the end of the day they were having bunch of information about the house, they returned home and gathered all the information together and found that 100 years ago there lived a family, in which a mother, father and a son lived, one day their son cut off his father's head with an axe .

when his mother came home she saw her husband's head rip off from his body and got mad , she put that body into the storage room and did some black magic with the body after couple of hours later his son died due to attack and she also couldn't bear this pain and died on the store room. After that day anyone who took that house either ran away or died .

The final encounter

As they discovered the hidden reality behind the house ,harsh was curious to check the store room which was on the 2nd floor, Gaurang told him not to go there .

Harsh told Gaurang to bring his camera, Gaurang bought his camera and started filming the moment. their heart was beating faster as they were moving towards the store room ,they noticed that things were not as they had left them. Doors that were closed were now open, and furniture had been moved around. they felt like someone was watching them

The feeling of being watched increased as they made their way to the upper floor. The air felt thick, and he could barely breathe. Suddenly, they heard a loud bang coming from the store room .

they approached the door and pushed it to open, suddenly the room went dark harsh turned on the flash light to see around and started searching , suddenly Gaurang screamed , he saw the body of a man without head lying on the floor Gaurang and Harsh were frozen in fear as they stood there, staring at the beheaded body lying before them. They couldn't believe what they had just saw. Gaurang tried to turn off the camera, but his hands were shaking so much that he couldn't do it.

As they were standing there, they heard a strange noise coming from outside the room. They both turned their heads towards the door and saw that it was slowly opening. They both panicked and tried to run out, but the door wouldn't open . It was like someone or something was holding it .

Suddenly, they heard a loud, voice that seemed to be coming from everywhere , . "You should have left this house ," the voice said. "Now, you'll have to die."

The room suddenly went dark, and they heard the sound of footsteps getting closer and closer. They both started screaming for help, but no one could hear them.

They were trapped in the house, with the evil spirit As the footsteps got closer, they both felt a cold, hand on their shoulders. They turned around to face their worst nightmare - the ghost of the beheaded man, his eyes staring at them.

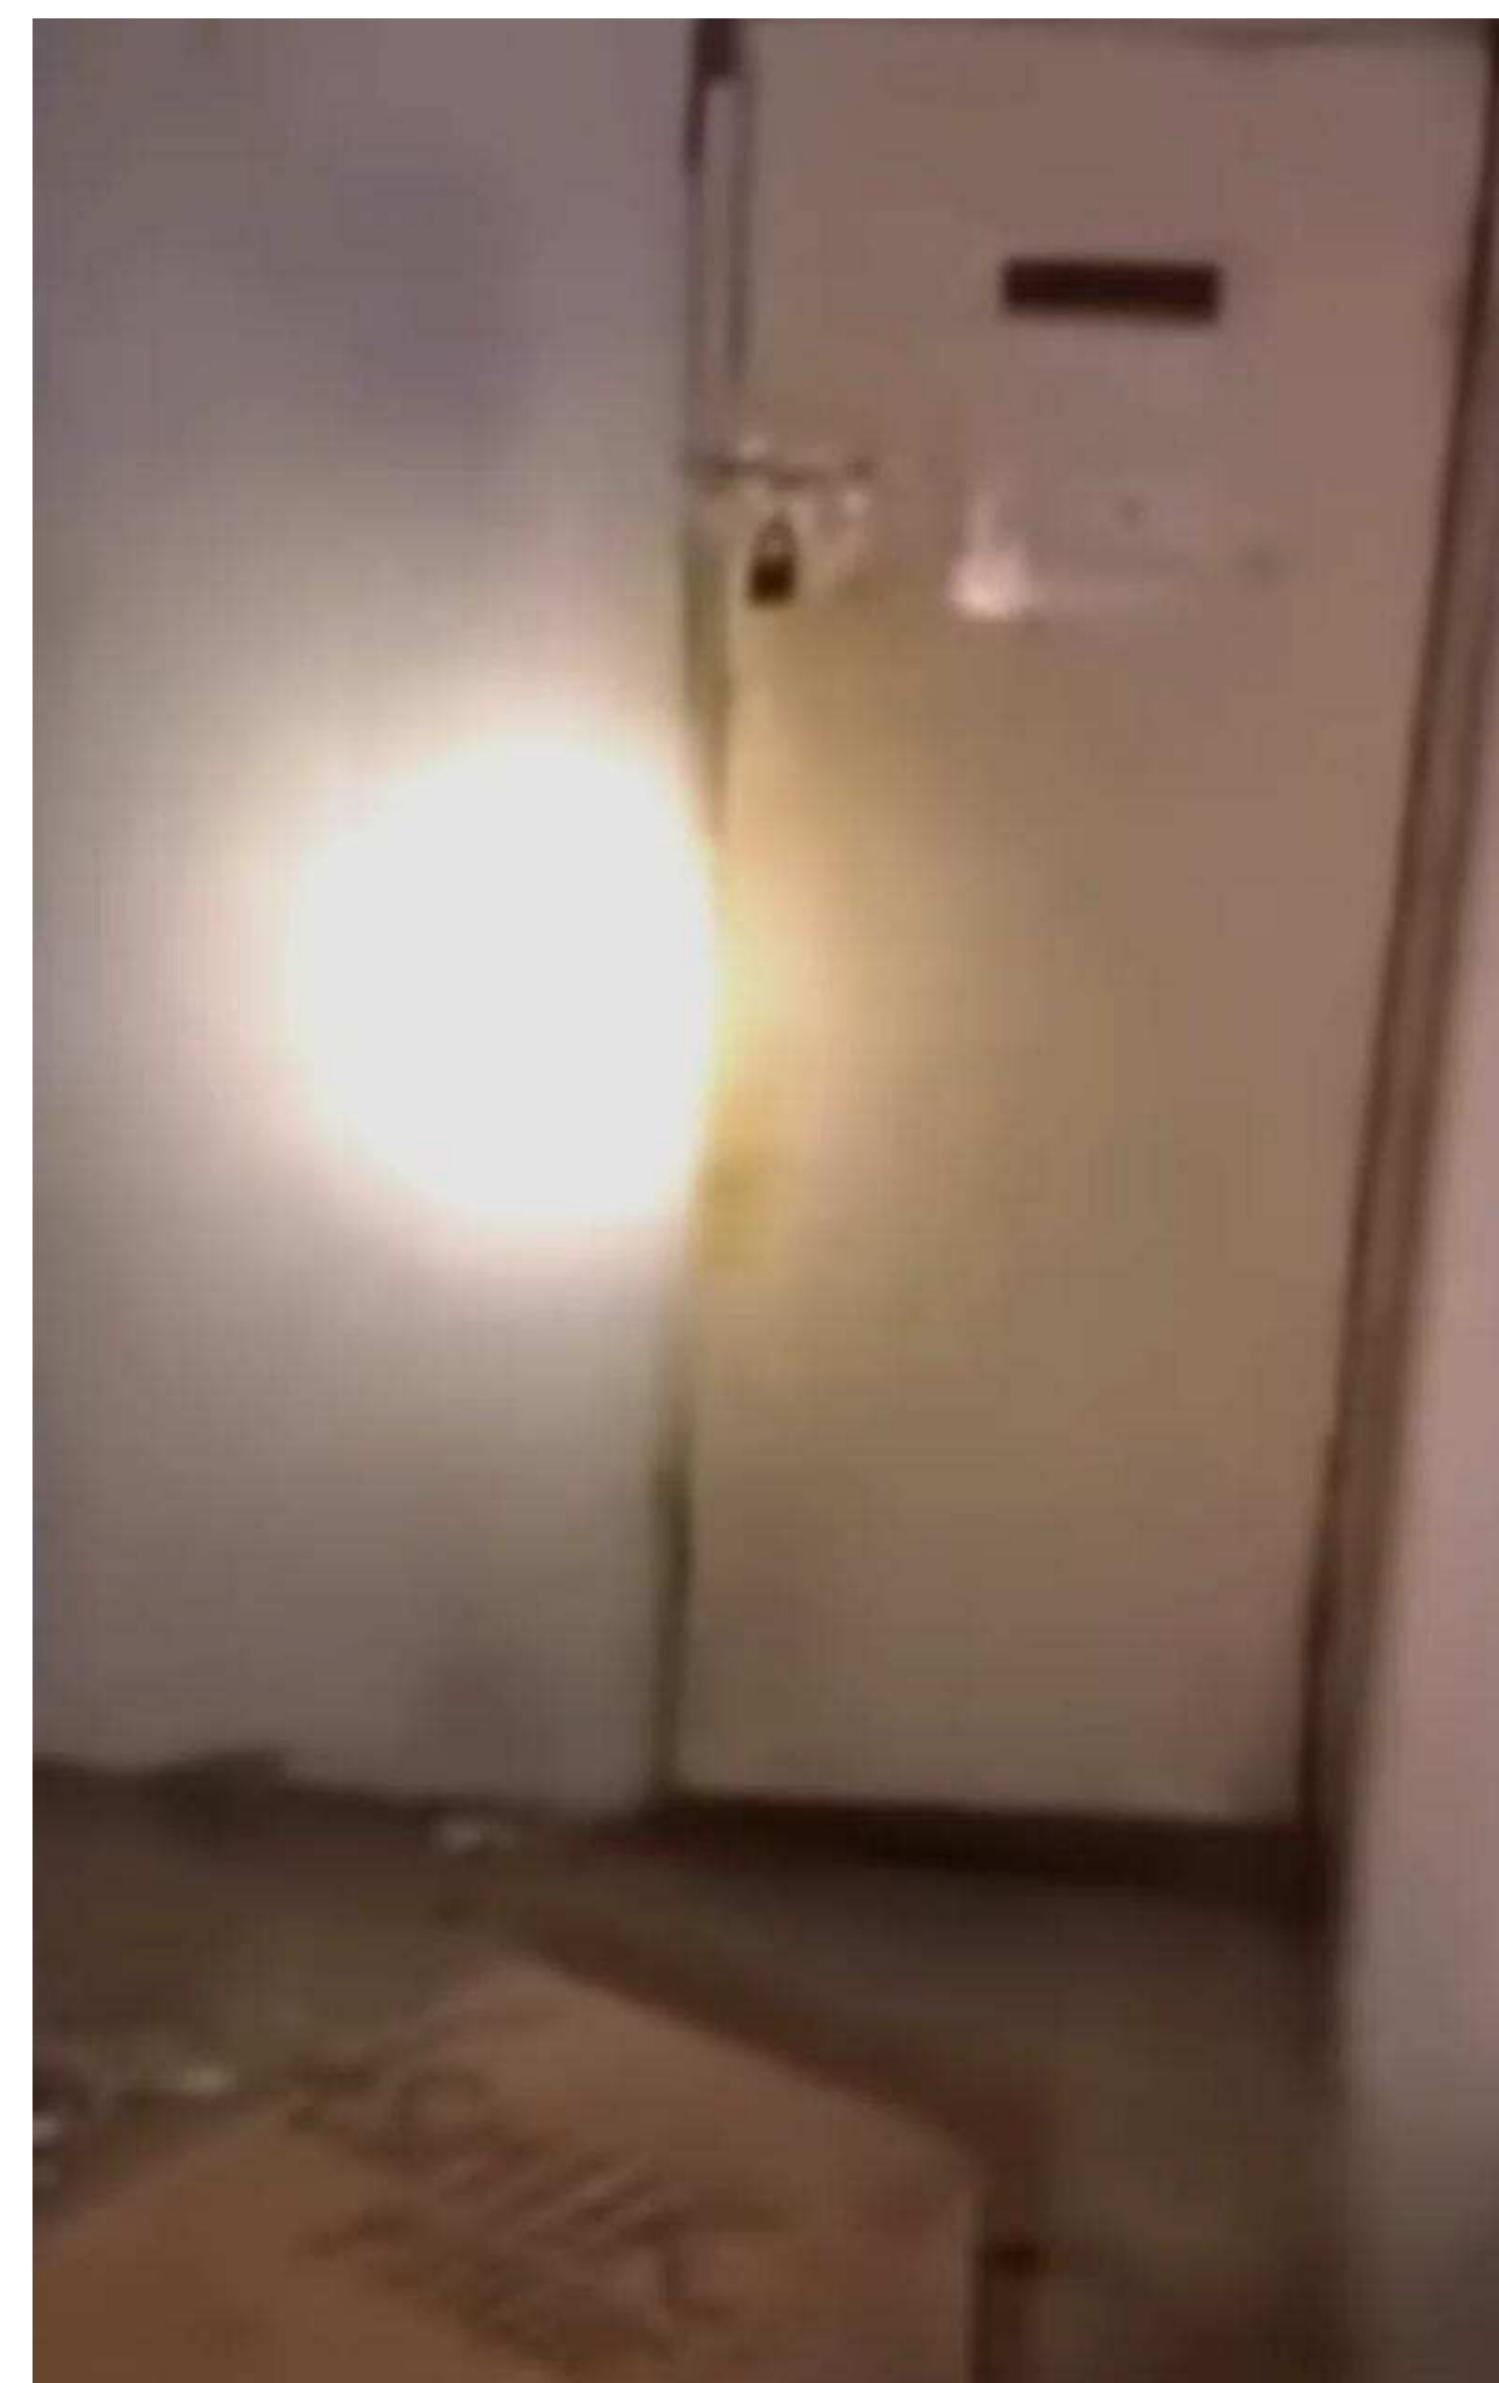

They tried to run, but it was no use. They were trapped in the house, with no way out.

They were found dead a week later, hanged upon the railing of the house their eyes red ,wide open and filled with terror. No one ever took that house again, and it remained abandoned for years to come.

The story of Gaurang and Harsh became popular in Lucknow, and people often told it to scare each other. No one ever knew what happened to their bodies , but it was said that their spirits still roamed the halls of that haunted house.
